

Portal to English 2

MODULE 4 (b)

Vocabulary Practice p. 48

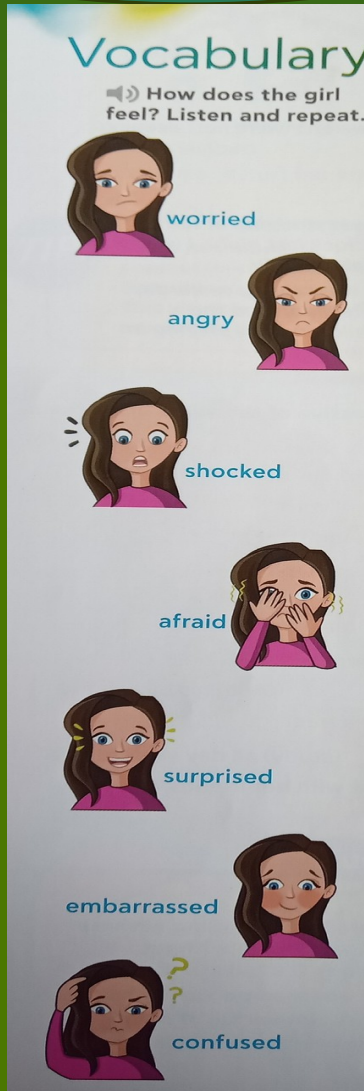

worried embarrassed confused afraid surprised

A. Change one word of emotions to correct the sentences. Use the words from the box.

1. Danny was shocked when they shouted "Happy birthday".
2. My mom and I were angry because of the spider.
3. Is a killer-whale a whale or a dolphin? I am a bit worried.
4. Tom was surprised when he fell down in front of his classmates.
5. My sister was embarrassed when she was waiting for the results.

B. Circle the correct word in the sentences.

1. I'm surprised/afraid of sharks, even I see them on TV.
2. We noticed she was embarrassed/angry when we asked her to sing for us.
3. Victor was confused/worried about the test.
4. Is your dog`s name Rex or Tex? I'm confused/shocked.

C. Read the text below and complete the gaps. Use only one word of emotions in each gap.

What a misunderstanding!

It was Saturday morning, a new inexperienced receptionist of the rescue team picked up the phone when it started ringing. An old woman called and she was crying:

- You have to arrive immediately. My little Tommy is stuck in a tree and can't climb down. My Tommy is _____ of heights. I'm Mrs Anderson. My address is the High Street. Oh, the house, the house is 44!"

- We are coming! – he said, but she hung up.

When the rescue team arrived at that place they were _____ because they couldn't see any little boy there. They saw only a little cat. While the old woman was begging them to get Tommy out the tree the cat climbed down without any help. The captain of the rescue team was _____ that it was just a cat not a little boy. Of course they would help the woman, but she was _____ that she had not explained everything.