

Fantastic collection of original stories which feature the cultures of English-speaking countries

Mum can't buy the teddy bear the kids want, but Yellow Ted will manage to come to them.

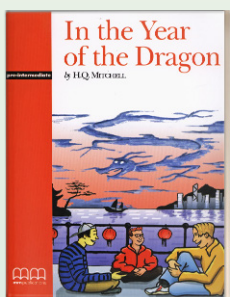

Three friends go into the old house to get their ball. What will happen there?

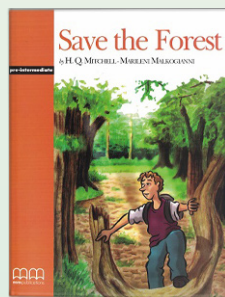

In this contemporary story, four American teenage musicians are invited to one of the most prestigious music awards and expect to have the time of their lives. However, an unexpected twist at the start of their journey turns their trip to New York into one full of action, excitement and suspense. Well-rounded, modern and likeable characters take the readers by the hand and lead them into a world of fun and adventure.

Lisa continues her adventures, this time along the banks of the beautiful but mysterious Loch Ness in Scotland. She meets her hosts, the MacGregor family, spends two weeks with them on the shores of Loch Ness and becomes intrigued by Nessie, the famous monster. Join Lisa and the MacGregors in their adventures and find out lots of interesting facts about Scotland, its people and, of course, Nessie.

In this contemporary story, two brothers, Jason and Nicholas, get lost in the midst of Hong Kong's colourful New Year celebrations after Jason's plans are intercepted by his curious younger brother. During their adventures around Hong Kong, Jason makes new friends and finds out a lot of interesting things about the world and himself. It is a story of acceptance, friendship and self-discovery. Realistic and likeable characters bring the story to life with mystery and entertainment.

Christopher Andrews lives in Aylesworth, a quiet town in Berkshire. Nothing exciting happens until the day when Christopher finds out that his favourite place, Aylesworth Forest, will be cut down to build blocks of flats. He decides that he has to do something to save this beautiful old forest. With the help of others, Christopher makes sure his voice is heard. In this contemporary story, Christopher not only proves that nothing is impossible, but he also learns a great deal about himself.