М. ДНІПРО

Запрошуємо всіх вчителів та викладачів англійської мови на методичний семінар від видавництва National Geographic Learning та компанії Лінгвіст.

Alex is a DELTA trained teacher trainer with over 15 years' experience of working in ELT as a teacher, academic director and teacher trainer. Prior to his experiences in ELT, Alex worked as a journalist before a chance encounter in the Indonesian jungle began him on the path which has led him to working with National Geographic Learning. A firm believer in a communicative approach to language learning and student-centred learning, Alex enjoys working with innovative, thought-provoking materials and presenting on a wide range of ELT-related topics, all the while driven by his passion for developing teachers on a global scale and helping them to reach their true potential.

ТЕМИ СЕМІНАРУ:

DEVELOPING GLOBAL CITIZENS - 5 WAYS YOUNG LEARNERS WILL CHANGE THE WORLD

The English language classroom has gone beyond being the place where we just teach English grammar, vocabulary and the four skills. The English classroom is now also the place where we need to teach our students about the world in which English is the lingua franca. Moreover, we need to help them develop the knowledge, values and skills to become both active and effective global citizens. After all, the future is in their hands. With this in mind, and using examples from National Geographic Learning's Our World series, we'll look at five ways in which our young learners will change the world.

THE POWER OF TED - 13 REASONS WHY TED BELONGS IN THE ELT CLASSROOM

Not only are TED Talks hugely popular (20+ billion views is testament to that), they're also talked about. And if they're talked about then they're something worth bringing into the English language classroom. As such TED Talks make for a wonderful resource for both learning and teaching. Indeed, it could be argued that there are as many reasons to use TED in the classroom as there are TED Talks. Referencing National Geographic Learning's Perspectives series, in this session we'll look at the benefits of using TED in the English language classroom, including how they can be used to motivate learners and help give them the skills and knowledge they need to become 21st century citizens.
