

10 most beautiful idioms in English

St. Valentine's Day is coming and we would like to share with you 10 most beautiful idioms in English.

Match these idioms with their meaning. Which of these idioms do you find easy to guess? Share your views in the comment section on our Facebook page MM Publications Ukraine.

- |                                    |                          |                                      |                          |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. It takes two to tango           | <input type="checkbox"/> | 6. To wear your heart on your sleeve | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. To burn your bridges            | <input type="checkbox"/> | 7. Water under the bridge            | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. To only have eyes for someone   | <input type="checkbox"/> | 8. To touch someone's heart          | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. Those three little words        | <input type="checkbox"/> | 9. To be an item                     | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. To have a soft spot for someone | <input type="checkbox"/> | 10. To tie the knot                  | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Meaning:

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| a) to be attracted or interested in one person | f) to have disagreements in the past                           |
| b) to openly share your feelings               | g) a couple who are in established relationship                |
| c) to marry                                    | h) to end relationships  |
| d) to be equally responsible for something     | i) to make somebody feel touched                               |
| e) to say that you love someone                | j) to have a great deal of affection for somebody or something |

Answers

1. d

2. h

3. a

4. e

5. j

6. b

7. f

8. i

9. g

10. c

